Video editing can be both a technical and creative challenge for most people. Editing can be very time consuming, often requires a high level of skill and can take years to master.

The cost of editing services can be prohibitive as in western countries, editing rates are often $100 per hour. Rates in emerging countries can be lower but quite often the skill level is not there. Our current rate is $25 per hour which creates sustainability and viability for all concerned. Paying staff respectful rates for their work uplifts both their life and the lives of their families. It makes a real difference.

Our studio has simple yet solid processes for ensuring that we clearly understand your objectives at the outset. We keep you informed as the work progresses, communicate any issues and deliver what is expected within your time desired time frame and budget. Our work has integrity at all levels.

We love making peoples projects happen and providing the best possible results. For a quotation please complete our quotation form provided.

Please feel free to contact me directly if you have any further questions or queries.

Best regards,

David Brown
Film Producer
